

60th Reunion “Starlight & Sawdust Reprise” Photos

Most of these photos were taken by class photographer, Jim Lyn Provo. We thank Lyn for his dedication to our class and for tirelessly covering our activities. Sandra Collins Stevens also contributed some photos.

The registration desk in the Hilton lobby was staffed by lots of volunteers. In this photo are Lil Olsen Classen, Cloe Carroll Dance and JoAnne Schindler Biringier.

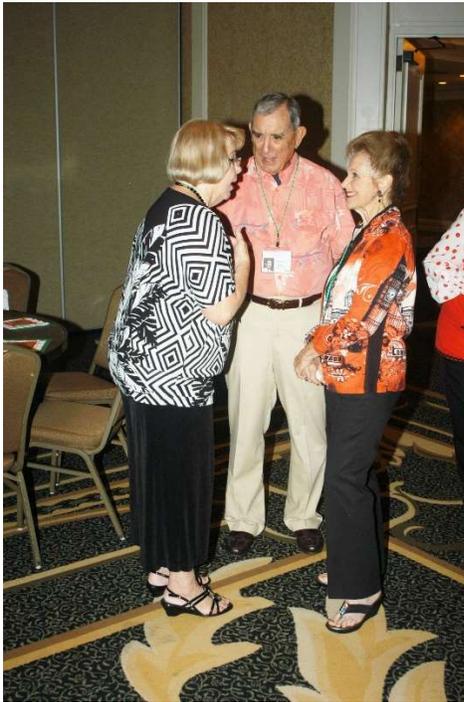

Marlene Matouk Haugland and George Perkins are showing how it's done.

The group photo took two shots to cover everyone at the reunion.

This was taken in the Hilton lobby.

Alongside the circus wagon are many committee members who helped state this event.

Rosemary and Phil Royce came from NC to pose on the green bench.

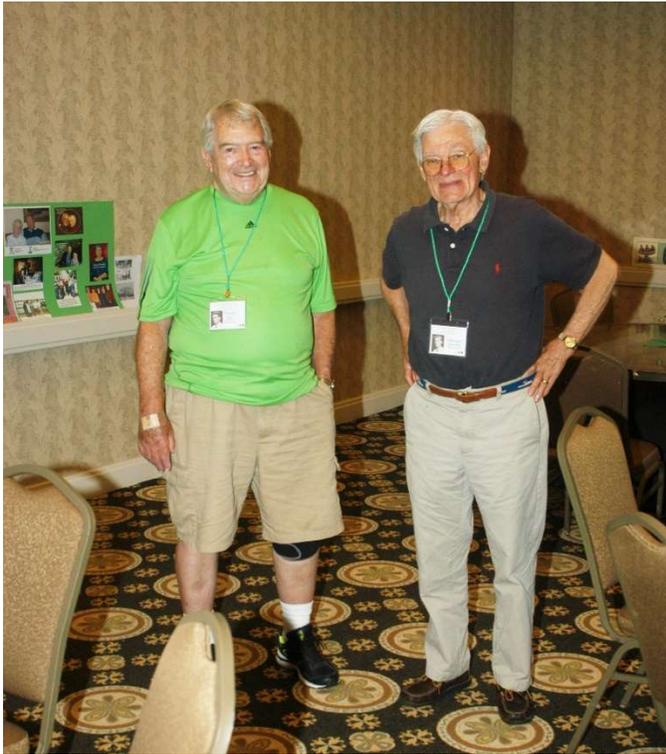

As we did for some previous reunions, we borrowed a green bench from First Presbyterian Church. Many nostalgic photos were taken on it. Here Joe and Pat Chamberlain are cozying up on it.

Two of our west coast classmates traveled to St. Pete for the big 60th reunion - Marlene Matouk Haugland from Oregon and Bernie Wade from California.

The Hospitality Room was a great place for visiting and catching up on classmates' lives.

Chuck Burnham came from California and George Perkins came from Connecticut.

Lois Gillies Phillips won Neil Gatewood's painting of the grand march at the 1953 Jr. – Sr. Prom at the Coliseum.

Nancy Cramer Litten and Roger Fleming discovered each other in the Hospitality Room.

Classmates came from near and far for the big 60th reunion. Sylvia Hommer Acton (standing) came from Bexley, Ohio; Gail Willingham Payne (seated right) came from Coral Gables and Sally Lou Carlson Cronk (seated left) came from Seminole, Florida.
