

65th High School Reunion

On May 22, 36 SPHS and Boca Ciega Class of 1954 graduates, and guests, celebrated the 65th year since their graduation. The venue was a luncheon cruise on Boca Ciega Bay aboard the Starlite Sapphire. Shown is the group who participated in this special event, minus some camera-shy guests. It was a beautiful day and very calm.

The dining tables on board were decorated with school colors, balloons and centerpieces. A reunion cake was served for dessert, decorated with a SPHS Green Devil and a Boca Ciega Pirate. Nametags were pre-printed with SPHS and BCHS colors. The decoration committee included June Ward Fleisher, Barbara Volley Bowen, Dolores Carr DeWitt, and Phyllis Reichelderfer Doescher. They did a great job!

Photos by James Lyn Provo

As with most of the newsletters you receive, the class photographer is James Lyn Provo. He is very faithful to the class and bears all costs associated with us getting the photos. He often provides hard color prints he has made for participants of a class event. The class is ever grateful to him for providing this service.

Some of the great decorations for the event are shown on the starboard side of the Starlite Sapphire. Seated under the balloons are Margaret Kellestine Ritter and Dolores Carr DeWitt. We shared the cruise with a tour bus load who sat on the port side of the ship.

Marie Ortner Cowart and her son Bill came from Tallahassee for the reunion.

Decoration committee members Barbara Volley Bowen and June Ward Fleisher are seen amongst some of their handiwork.

Susanne Provo (SPHS '56) and Barbara Reed Thompson were sailors on the cruise.

Sherry Nichols Rasmussen (SPHS '55) and Ron Rasmussen enjoyed renewing friendships with the Halyard's, Bogue's and Branan's. – all sitting at the same table.

Walt Lettau, Sr. and Phyllis Reichelderfer Doescher were at the same table, behind the ribbons.

The Buckingham's, Sandra (Shoemake) and Bill came from Pasco County.

Gloria Slater Carnegie and Lois Gillies Phillips enjoyed some deck time on the Starlite Sapphire.

Paul Halyard (SPHS '53) and Mary Jane Dulin Halyard traveled from Orlando for the 65th reunion.

L to R: Lu Ann Branan, Carl Branan, Ginny Bogue and Don Bogue. This was the Branan's first reunion, having moved to Englewood, FL last year from a career in Colorado.

Bette Jackman LoBue and Joanne Schindler Biringer came from Seminole and Safety Harbor, respectively.

Emil Sales and Reunion Class Secretary Nancy Cramer Litten are regulars at all class events.

65th High School Reunion

On May 22, 36 SPHS and Boca Ciega Class of 1954 graduates, and guests, celebrated the 65th year since their graduation. The venue was a luncheon cruise on Boca Ciega Bay aboard the Starlite Sapphire. Shown is the group who participated in this special event, minus some camera-shy guests. It was a beautiful day and very calm.

The dining tables on board were decorated with school colors, balloons and centerpieces. A reunion cake was served for dessert, decorated with a SPHS Green Devil and a Boca Ciega Pirate. Nametags were pre-printed with SPHS and BCHS colors. The decoration committee included June Ward Fleisher, Barbara Volley Bowen, Dolores Carr DeWitt, and Phyllis Reichelderfer Doescher. They did a great job!

Photos by James Lyn Provo

As with most of the newsletters you receive, the class photographer is James Lyn Provo. He is very faithful to the class and bears all costs associated with us getting the photos. He often provides hard color prints he has made for participants of a class event. The class is ever grateful to him for providing this service.

Some of the great decorations for the event are shown on the starboard side of the Starlite Sapphire. Seated under the balloons are Margaret Kellestine Ritter and Dolores Carr DeWitt. We shared the cruise with a tour bus load who sat on the port side of the ship.

Marie Ortner Cowart and her son Bill came from Tallahassee for the reunion.

Decoration committee members Barbara Volley Bowen and June Ward Fleisher are seen amongst some of their handiwork.

Susanne Provo (SPHS '56) and Barbara Reed Thompson were sailors on the cruise.

Sherry Nichols Rasmussen (SPHS '55) and Ron Rasmussen enjoyed renewing friendships with the Halyard's, Bogue's and Branan's. – all sitting at the same table.

Walt Lettau, Sr. and Phyllis Reichelderfer Doescher were at the same table, behind the ribbons.

The Buckingham's, Sandra (Shoemake) and Bill came from Pasco County.

Gloria Slater Carnegie and Lois Gillies Phillips enjoyed some deck time on the Starlite Sapphire.

Paul Halyard (SPHS '53) and Mary Jane Dulin Halyard traveled from Orlando for the 65th reunion.

L to R: Lu Ann Branan, Carl Branan, Ginny Bogue and Don Bogue. This was the Branan's first reunion, having moved to Englewood, FL last year from a career in Colorado.

Bette Jackman LoBue and Joanne Schindler Biringer came from Seminole and Safety Harbor, respectively.

Emil Sales and Reunion Class Secretary Nancy Cramer Litten are regulars at all class events.

Photos by James Lyn Provo

As with most of the newsletters you receive, the class photographer is James Lyn Provo. He is very faithful to the class and bears all costs associated with us getting the photos. He often provides hard color prints he has made for participants of a class event. The class is ever grateful to him for providing this service.

Some of the great decorations for the event are shown on the starboard side of the Starlite Sapphire. Seated under the balloons are Margaret Kellestine Ritter and Dolores Carr DeWitt. We shared the cruise with a tour bus load who sat on the port side of the ship.

Marie Ortner Cowart and her son Bill came from Tallahassee for the reunion.

Decoration committee members Barbara Volley Bowen and June Ward Fleisher are seen amongst some of their handiwork.

Susanne Provo (SPHS '56) and Barbara Reed Thompson were sailors on the cruise.

Sherry Nichols Rasmussen (SPHS '55) and Ron Rasmussen enjoyed renewing friendships with the Halyard's, Bogue's and Branan's. – all sitting at the same table.

Walt Lettau, Sr. and Phyllis Reichelderfer Doescher were at the same table, behind the ribbons.

Gloria Slater Carnegie and Lois Gillies Phillips enjoyed some deck time on the Starlite Sapphire.

The Buckingham's, Sandra (Shoemake) and Bill came from Pasco County.

Paul Halyard (SPHS '53) and Mary Jane Dulin Halyard traveled from Orlando for the 65th reunion.

L to R: Lu Ann Branan, Carl Branan, Ginny Bogue and Don Bogue. This was the Branan's first reunion, having moved to Englewood, FL last year from a career in Colorado.

Bette Jackman LoBue and Joanne Schindler Biringer came from Seminole and Safety Harbor, respectively.

Emil Sales and Reunion Class Secretary Nancy Cramer Litten are regulars at all class events.

65th High School Reunion

On May 22, 36 SPHS and Boca Ciega Class of 1954 graduates, and guests, celebrated the 65th year since their graduation. The venue was a luncheon cruise on Boca Ciega Bay aboard the Starlite Sapphire. Shown is the group who participated in this special event, minus some camera-shy guests. It was a beautiful day and very calm.

The dining tables on board were decorated with school colors, balloons and centerpieces. A reunion cake was served for dessert, decorated with a SPHS Green Devil and a Boca Ciega Pirate. Nametags were pre-printed with SPHS and BCHS colors. The decoration committee included June Ward Fleisher, Barbara Volley Bowen, Dolores Carr DeWitt, and Phyllis Reichelderfer Doescher. They did a great job!

65th High School Reunion

On May 22, 36 SPHS and Boca Ciega Class of 1954 graduates, and guests, celebrated the 65th year since their graduation. The venue was a luncheon cruise on Boca Ciega Bay aboard the Starlite Sapphire. Shown is the group who participated in this special event, minus some camera-shy guests. It was a beautiful day and very calm.

The dining tables on board were decorated with school colors, balloons and centerpieces. A reunion cake was served for dessert, decorated with a SPHS Green Devil and a Boca Ciega Pirate. Nametags were pre-printed with SPHS and BCHS colors. The decoration committee included June Ward Fleisher, Barbara Volley Bowen, Dolores Carr DeWitt, and Phyllis Reichelderfer Doescher. They did a great job!

Photos by James Lyn Provo

As with most of the newsletters you receive, the class photographer is James Lyn Provo. He is very faithful to the class and bears all costs associated with us getting the photos. He often provides hard color prints he has made for participants of a class event. The class is ever grateful to him for providing this service.

Some of the great decorations for the event are shown on the starboard side of the Starlite Sapphire. Seated under the balloons are Margaret Kellestine Ritter and Dolores Carr DeWitt. We shared the cruise with a tour bus load who sat on the port side of the ship.

Marie Ortner Cowart and her son Bill came from Tallahassee for the reunion.

Decoration committee members Barbara Volley Bowen and June Ward Fleisher are seen amongst some of their handiwork.

Susanne Provo (SPHS '56) and Barbara Reed Thompson were sailors on the cruise.

Sherry Nichols Rasmussen (SPHS '55) and Ron Rasmussen enjoyed renewing friendships with the Halyard's, Bogue's and Branan's. – all sitting at the same table.

Walt Lettau, Sr. and Phyllis Reichelderfer Doescher were at the same table, behind the ribbons.

The Buckingham's, Sandra (Shoemake) and Bill came from Pasco County.

Gloria Slater Carnegie and Lois Gillies Phillips enjoyed some deck time on the Starlite Sapphire.

Paul Halyard (SPHS '53) and Mary Jane Dulin Halyard traveled from Orlando for the 65th reunion.

L to R: Lu Ann Branan, Carl Branan, Ginny Bogue and Don Bogue. This was the Branan's first reunion, having moved to Englewood, FL last year from a career in Colorado.

Bette Jackman LoBue and Joanne Schindler Biringer came from Seminole and Safety Harbor, respectively.

Emil Sales and Reunion Class Secretary Nancy Cramer Litten are regulars at all class events.

As with most of the newsletters you receive, the class photographer is James Lyn Provo. He is very faithful to the class and bears all costs associated with us getting the photos. He often provides hard color prints he has made for participants of a class event. The class is ever grateful to him for providing this service.

Some of the great decorations for the event are shown on the starboard side of the Starlite Sapphire. Seated under the balloons are Margaret Kellestine Ritter and Dolores Carr DeWitt. We shared the cruise with a tour bus load who sat on the port side of the ship.

Marie Ortner Cowart and her son Bill came from Tallahassee for the reunion.

Decoration committee members Barbara Volley Bowen and June Ward Fleisher are seen amongst some of their handiwork.

Susanne Provo (SPHS '56) and Barbara Reed Thompson were sailors on the cruise.

Sherry Nichols Rasmussen (SPHS '55) and Ron Rasmussen enjoyed renewing friendships with the Halyard's, Bogue's and Branan's. – all sitting at the same table.

Walt Lettau, Sr. and Phyllis Reichelderfer Doescher were at the same table, behind the ribbons.

Gloria Slater Carnegie and Lois Gillies Phillips enjoyed some deck time on the Starlite Sapphire.

The Buckingham's, Sandra (Shoemake) and Bill came from Pasco County.

Paul Halyard (SPHS '53) and Mary Jane Dulin Halyard traveled from Orlando for the 65th reunion.

L to R: Lu Ann Branan, Carl Branan, Ginny Bogue and Don Bogue. This was the Branan's first reunion, having moved to Englewood, FL last year from a career in Colorado.

Bette Jackman LoBue and Joanne Schindler Biringer came from Seminole and Safety Harbor, respectively.

Emil Sales and Reunion Class Secretary Nancy Cramer Litten are regulars at all class events.

65th High School Reunion

On May 22, 36 SPHS and Boca Ciega Class of 1954 graduates, and guests, celebrated the 65th year since their graduation. The venue was a luncheon cruise on Boca Ciega Bay aboard the Starlite Sapphire. Shown is the group who participated in this special event, minus some camera-shy guests. It was a beautiful day and very calm.

The dining tables on board were decorated with school colors, balloons and centerpieces. A reunion cake was served for dessert, decorated with a SPHS Green Devil and a Boca Ciega Pirate. Nametags were pre-printed with SPHS and BCHS colors. The decoration committee included June Ward Fleisher, Barbara Volley Bowen, Dolores Carr DeWitt, and Phyllis Reichelderfer Doescher. They did a great job!

65th High School Reunion

On May 22, 36 SPHS and Boca Ciega Class of 1954 graduates, and guests, celebrated the 65th year since their graduation. The venue was a luncheon cruise on Boca Ciega Bay aboard the Starlite Sapphire. Shown is the group who participated in this special event, minus some camera-shy guests. It was a beautiful day and very calm.

The dining tables on board were decorated with school colors, balloons and centerpieces. A reunion cake was served for dessert, decorated with a SPHS Green Devil and a Boca Ciega Pirate. Nametags were pre-printed with SPHS and BCHS colors. The decoration committee included June Ward Fleisher, Barbara Volley Bowen, Dolores Carr DeWitt, and Phyllis Reichelderfer Doescher. They did a great job!

Photos by James Lyn Provo

As with most of the newsletters you receive, the class photographer is James Lyn Provo. He is very faithful to the class and bears all costs associated with us getting the photos. He often provides hard color prints he has made for participants of a class event. The class is ever grateful to him for providing this service.

Some of the great decorations for the event are shown on the starboard side of the Starlite Sapphire. Seated under the balloons are Margaret Kellestine Ritter and Dolores Carr DeWitt. We shared the cruise with a tour bus load who sat on the port side of the ship.

Marie Ortner Cowart and her son Bill came from Tallahassee for the reunion.

Decoration committee members Barbara Volley Bowen and June Ward Fleisher are seen amongst some of their handiwork.

Susanne Provo (SPHS '56) and Barbara Reed Thompson were sailors on the cruise.

Sherry Nichols Rasmussen (SPHS '55) and Ron Rasmussen enjoyed renewing friendships with the Halyard's, Bogue's and Branan's. – all sitting at the same table.

Walt Lettau, Sr. and Phyllis Reichelderfer Doescher were at the same table, behind the ribbons.

Gloria Slater Carnegie and Lois Gillies Phillips enjoyed some deck time on the Starlite Sapphire.

The Buckingham's, Sandra (Shoemake) and Bill came from Pasco County.

Paul Halyard (SPHS '53) and Mary Jane Dulin Halyard traveled from Orlando for the 65th reunion.

Bette Jackman LoBue and Joanne Schindler Biringer came from Seminole and Safety Harbor, respectively.

L to R: Lu Ann Branam, Carl Branam, Ginny Bogue and Don Bogue. This was the Branam's first reunion, having moved to Englewood, FL last year from a career in Colorado.

Emil Sales and Reunion Class Secretary Nancy Cramer Litten are regulars at all class events.

He often provides hard color prints he has made for participants of a class event. The class is ever grateful to him for providing this service.

Some of the great decorations for the event are shown on the starboard side of the Starlite Sapphire. Seated under the balloons are Margaret Kellestine Ritter and Dolores Carr DeWitt. We shared the cruise with a tour bus load who sat on the port side of the ship.

Marie Ortner Cowart and her son Bill came from Tallahassee for the reunion.

Decoration committee members Barbara Volley Bowen and June Ward Fleisher are seen amongst some of their handiwork.

Susanne Provo (SPHS '56) and Barbara Reed Thompson were sailors on the cruise.

Sherry Nichols Rasmussen (SPHS '55) and Ron Rasmussen enjoyed renewing friendships with the Halyard's, Bogue's and Branan's. – all sitting at the same table.

Walt Lettau, Sr. and Phyllis Reichelderfer Doescher were at the same table, behind the ribbons.

The Buckingham's, Sandra (Shoemake) and Bill came from Pasco County.

Gloria Slater Carnegie and Lois Gillies Phillips enjoyed some deck time on the Starlite Sapphire.

Paul Halyard (SPHS '53) and Mary Jane Dulin Halyard traveled from Orlando for the 65th reunion.

L to R: Lu Ann Branan, Carl Branan, Ginny Bogue and Don Bogue. This was the Branan's first reunion, having moved to Englewood, FL last year from a career in Colorado.

Bette Jackman LoBue and Joanne Schindler Biringer came from Seminole and Safety Harbor, respectively.

Emil Sales and Reunion Class Secretary Nancy Cramer Litten are regulars at all class events.

65th High School Reunion

On May 22, 36 SPHS and Boca Ciega Class of 1954 graduates, and guests, celebrated the 65th year since their graduation. The venue was a luncheon cruise on Boca Ciega Bay aboard the Starlite Sapphire. Shown is the group who participated in this special event, minus some camera-shy guests. It was a beautiful day and very calm.

The dining tables on board were decorated with school colors, balloons and centerpieces. A reunion cake was served for dessert, decorated with a SPHS Green Devil and a Boca Ciega Pirate. Nametags were pre-printed with SPHS and BCHS colors. The decoration committee included June Ward Fleisher, Barbara Volley Bowen, Dolores Carr DeWitt, and Phyllis Reichelderfer Doescher. They did a great job!

Photos by James Lyn Provo

As with most of the newsletters you receive, the class photographer is James Lyn Provo. He is very faithful to the class and bears all costs associated with us getting the photos. He often provides hard color prints he has made for participants of a class event. The class is ever grateful to him for providing this service.
